The Fairy God Foundation To Host Prom Dress Giveaway

SANDY HOWELL
DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY-April 11, 2008-The Fairy God Foundation will host an open house to distribute free prom dresses on Saturday, April 19 from 11 am-2 pm at the Mountain Arts Center in Prestonsburg. All students who are unable to purchase a prom dress are welcome to attend.

KEVAN VENTURA
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

“We are excited about the opportunity to help students in the Floyd County area for the first time and are greatly appreciative of the Mountain Arts Center for hosting this event,” said Stephen M. Wayne, the Foundation’s executive director. The Foundation is part of DonateMyDress.org (www.donatemydress.org), a national campaign to encourage formal dress donations.

COMMUNICATIONS

Those with questions about the open house may contact Sandy Howell, the Foundation’s director of operations, at showell@fairygodfoundation.org or (606) 587-3065.

The Mountain Arts Center is located at 50 Hal Rogers Drive in Prestonsburg; off the Mountain Parkway just west of U.S. 23.

Now in its fourth year, The Fairy God Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization headquartered in London that is dedicated to providing free prom dresses and accompaniments to disadvantaged high school students across Southeastern Kentucky. Last year, the Foundation helped over 80 students attend proms. For more information, visit www.fairygodfoundation.org.
