FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN-March 17, 2009-Farmington High School's annual prom dress collection drive to support The Fairy God Foundation kicks off on Monday, March 23. Donations of gently worn formal dresses, shoes, and accessories suitable for high school proms may be dropped off in the school's Main Office through Friday, March 27.

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Donations are tax-deductible and benefit The Fairy God Foundation, which provides free dresses and other accompaniments of prom to disadvantaged students in Appalachian Kentucky. The Foundation is part of DonateMyDress.org (www.donatemydress.org), a national campaign to encourage formal dress donations.

"If you saw the recent 20/20 special "Children of the Mountains" on ABC, then you understand the need in Appalachia and how kids are disproportionately affected," said Susan Smith, FHS social worker.

Those donors who need a receipt should include an itemized list of the value of each item donated along with their name and e-mail address.

FHS dress drives have accounted for half of all dresses donated to The Fairy God Foundation, which is headquartered in Hazard, Kentucky. For more information, visit www.fairygodfoundation.org.
