

Students Benefit From The Fairy God Foundation

The Fairy God Foundation provided several Perry County Central High School students with free prom dresses for their prom on April 14th. Students also received complimentary gift certificates for services such as hair styling, makeovers, manicures and dinners that were donated by local businesses. Additionally, one male student was provided with a free tuxedo rental and hair cut.

"The Fairy God Foundation has truly been a blessing by providing dresses and services to our students beyond what we could provide," explained PCC social worker Vana Francis.

The Foundation recognizes the following businesses for their generous donations: Barb's Salon & Day Spa, Dion's, Flowers by Olivia, France's Diner, Golden Comb, Karma Spa & Salon, Nancy's Beauty Shop, Patty's Shear Magic, Pizza Hut (Combs Rd.), Sheryl's Polished Choice, and Village Salon.

"We have immense gratitude for the philanthropy demonstrated by these businesses and are thrilled with the increased involvement of the community this year," said Executive Director Stephen M. Wayne.

This is the third year that the Hyden-based organization has helped students in Perry County. This year, the Foundation has already provided dresses to over 50 students across Southeastern Kentucky.

The Fairy God Foundation is a non-profit organization headquartered in Hyden with a mission to assist disadvantaged students attend prom and has since grown to serve students in Clay, Laurel, Leslie, Perry and Whitley counties. To learn more, visit www.fairygodfoundation.org.
